Rarely have international matches been played amid more stirring surroundings than those that obtained this afternoon at Longwood. Boston is war mad with the fever of the European conflagration surging through its veins and thousands of people jamming Washington and State sts. watching the newspaper war bulletins. Despite this, however, every seat in the great wooden stands about the courts was in a Davis Cup contest, and Wilding had won simply by his ability to profit by his opponent's errors. But he had forced Lowe to make those errors and that is all a part of the game.

Then Brookes and Parke, the two captains, wasted no time in preliminaries, the Irishman winning the toss and selecting the sunny court, as had Lowe before him.

Each took his service until the sixth gase, when Brookes broke through, winning four games in a row and the first set at 6-2. The big crowd was being thrilled as it had not been before, because the Australasian captain elected to go to the net upon every possible occasion, and nothing Farke could do could shake him from that position for long.

Saratoga, N. Y., Aug. 6—The fasteat mile run in the East all season was covered here this afternoon by Rich and T. Wilson's four-year-old Tartar, when he won the historic Delaware Stakes, in the presence of a crowd of 3,500 persons.

With 100 pounds on his back, the son of Ogden—Yankee Sister covered the eight furlongs in 1:373-5, beating by one-fifth of a second the time hung out after Buskin's victory in the Metropolitan Handicap at Belmont Park away back in the spring. And his performance was in every respect creditable, because he met about the best lot of milers the season's racing has seen at the barrier.

The Delaware, an oldtime Saratoga feature, has been won by such good horses as Blues, Chuetanunda, Molly Brant, Dandelion, Sir John Johnson, Lahore and Field Mouse, and Tartar's time is the record for the race. His contribution to the Wilson stable exchequer by his victory was $1,655.

The steeplechase handicap at two miles fell to Mrs. Payne Whitney's good Ben Brush four-year-old Ballet, which met and defeated Juverence, Abdon, Meadow Lark and Bill Andres. Willi Allen rode the Ben Brush four-year-old, which was favorite, and she jumped perfectly, taking the lead from Meadow Lark at the end of a mile and a half and finally withstanding the belated challenge of Juverence.
